

topics important to you.

7:00pm every Wednesday night only at LWA!

We said that Jesus wants each of us to use our influence to impact the world by bringing others to follow Him. We talked about some of the ways we may not feel qualified, much like the original Disciples.

We learned that the really great part is that we don't have to be qualified. According to these verses, we have the authority of Jesus and His presence with us, in the Holy Spirit, to qualify us.

We pointed out that while Jesus said to go make disciples of all nations, He neglected to say exactly how to do it. We discussed some things that may make leading others to Jesus difficult and said that the best way for us to use our influence to bring others to Christ is to simply live our own lives more Christ-like so that when others see our lives they will want to know more about how they can have the same.

We said that while it does sometimes happen, we shouldn't expect to influence people to follow Jesus over night. It may take many interactions over time. We said that the most important thing to do is to lean on the Holy Spirit for strength and for help in identifying those in our lives who God wishes for us to influence for His glory.
